SUMMER IN THE SOUTH

By Paul Laurence Dunbar

The Oriole sings in the greening grove

As if he were half-way waiting,

The rosebuds peep from their hoods of green,

Timid and hesitating,

The rain comes down in a torrent sweep

And the nights smell warm and pinety,

The garden thrives, but the tender shoots

Are yellow-green and tiny.

Then a flash of sun on a waiting hill.

Streams laugh that erst were quiet,

The sky smiles down with a dazzling blue

And the woods run mad with riot.

John Adams – Our 2ND President

excerpted from various internet sources*

Born: 10/30/1735

Died: 7/4/1826 (age 90)

John Adams was an American statesman and Founding Father, who served as the first Vice-President of the U.S. and the second President. He was a lawyer, diplomat, and a leader of the movement for American independence from Great Britain.

Adams was also known for his colorful correspondence with his wife Abigail, whom he married in 1764. Abigail was surely his closest advisor.

Adams was a diplomat to France in 1778 and again in 1782. During his second trip, he helped to create the Treaty of Paris, which ended the American Revolution.

Interestingly, Adams was the only president of the first five U.S. presidents NOT to be a slaveholder. He was the first lawyer-president and the first president to live in the White House.

At the time, whichever Presidential candidate received the most votes became President, and the one with the second most votes became the Vice-President. That is how John Adams wound up with his political rival, Thomas Jefferson, as his Vice-President following the election of 1796.

John Adams and his son, John Quincy Adams (6th president), are one of only two father/son duos to both be president. The other such set are the Bushes.

MAKING BREAKFAST

Miriam is making a breakfast of fried eggs for her husband David.

Suddenly David bursts into the kitchen.

“Careful. CAREFUL! Put in some more butter! Oh my goodness! You’re cooking too many at once. TOO MANY! Turn them, TURN THEM NOW! We need more butter. Oh my!”

His tirade continues — “Where are we going to get more butter? The eggs are going to stick! Oh no! I told you to be CAREFUL! You never listen to me when you’re cooking! Now what’s going to happen? You’re such a reckless cook!”

Miriam stares at her husband. “What’s wrong with you? Have you lost your mind? You think I don’t know how to fry a couple of eggs?”

A small smile comes over David's face as he calmly replies, "Just wanted to show you what YOU sound like when I'm driving!"
