9 Meaningful Thanksgiving Traditions You're Going to Want to Steal

excerpted from Reader's Digest.com

1. Catching Leaves—according to Appalachian folk wisdom, catching just one leaf is sufficient to ward off a cold for the winter

2. Go for the Gold—practice your teamwork with a special Thanksgiving Olympics

3. Put it on the Table—each guest uses a permanent marker on white tablecloth to write one thing he or she is thankful for

4. Take it Outside—have a Thanksgiving Day picnic!

5. A Beautiful Chain—Each guest receives strips of colored paper, on which they write things for which they feel thankful. Then go around the candlelit table, reading them aloud. Afterwards, the host links the strips of paper to form a chain.

6. Leftover Party—have a party with "Leftovers, Pie and Beer" and use the time to plan your Christmas get-together!

7. Make a Wish—Make the following wish before Thanksgiving dinner "We wish we will all be together again next Thanksgiving, maybe just a little better!"

8. Two Celebrations in One—Find a family member or friend who has a birthday or anniversary close to Thanksgiving, and take advantage of being together by making it a double celebration!

9. Spread the Love—Invite a special senior from your community who doesn't have plans to share in the Thanksgiving festivities. Be sure to pack up some leftovers to send home with your special guest.

FYI — WINTER CLOSINGS

At times during the winter months, JFS must close during a storm for the safety of our staff, clients, and volunteers. When there is a closing, it will be announced as part of our greeting when you call our main numbers—732-777-1940 in Milltown, and 609-395-7979 in Monroe.

The main message will also state whether or not meals are being delivered—no need to call Sara's cell.

Dreaming of a Diamond Necklace

*excerpted from Jewlariious.com

Clara woke up one morning and turned to her husband Alvin—"I had the most wonderful dream. You came home from work and presented me with a gorgeous diamond necklace.

I was nearly blinded by how sparkly it was. What do you think the dream means?"

Alvin was silent for a few moments, and then blurted out, "You'll find out tonight!"

Clara waited all day with anticipation, and finally Alvin arrived home and handed her a small box. Breathless, Clara quickly tore open the box to find a book entitled, The Meaning of Dreams.

FYI - If you always ask for the same type of menu change, you can request a "Standing Order" instead of calling the office each time. For example, if you don't wish to eat any hot meal of beef, you can request a "Standing Order" to substitute roast chicken any time beef comes up on the menu.
